DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on July 20, 2005 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 24-68 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Falk Funeral Homes by Denise Reaman, The Morning Call (hereafter Falk).

Falk discloses a computer implemented method using the Internet to automatically guide a user in electronically customize a funeral ceremony when purchasing funeral products.

Official Notice is taken that the particular funeral plan/arrangements /services and associated claim language recited from the claims has been common knowledge in the funeral ceremony business. To have provided such for Falk would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art in view of Official Notice. The motivation for having done such would have been to incorporate common knowledge funeral plan arrangements with the electronic customizing to provide a more efficient and less expensive funeral arrangement that may be remotely accessed.

4. Further pertinent references of interest are noted on the attached PTO-892.
